WHAT IS CLEMENTE?

Clemente is a ground-breaking university education program that aims to break the cycle of poverty, inequity and social injustice for Australians facing multiple disadvantages and social isolation.

Clemente helps people re-engage with their community and reflect upon the world around them.

A key success of Clemente is the involvement of learning partners who assist participants with the ‘process of learning’ over the semester.

WHO CAN STUDY WITH CLEMENTE?

Clemente is open to anyone who has encountered trauma, disadvantage or social marginalisation in their lives.

- over 18 years of age
- willing to learn
- able to commit to a 12 week program
- able to read and discuss a newspaper article
- delivered at no cost to the student.

The Clemente program in South Brisbane will recommence study for Semester 2, 2016 on 11 August 2016. Classes will occur once a week at Brisbane Common Ground, 15 Hope Street, South Brisbane.
